JAPANESE CAN REGARD AFFAIR IN CALIFORNIA TO HER LIKING SHE MAY SUFFER RUDE AWAKENING

Japan Likely to Demand Citizenship For Her Subjects.

NEW PHASE OF THE SITUATION

Raising the question of naturalization would prove embarrassing to the administration, as Congress is overwhelmingly against the proposition. Demand would also arouse tremendous opposition in United States.

Washington, May 21.—The entire Japanese issue is now up to Japan, and it will be only as serious as Japan herself cares to make it. Now that this government's note has been delivered to Ambassador China and transmitted by him to Tokyo, Secretary Bryan indicated there will be nothing doing in the situation so far as Washington is concerned until the Japanese government makes some rejoinder to the United States' answer to its protests against the California alien land law, signed the other day by Governor Johnson.

The most interesting phase of the situation here was the growth of the impression that Japan intends to ask for her subjects in the United States the privileges of American citizenship. Dispatches from Tokyo, both official and unofficial, indicate that the Japanese government and people are unanimous in the determination that citizenship must be demanded unless the California law is eliminated. Confirmation of this sentiment among the Japanese was found also in the words of the Japanese representatives of the leading political parties who arrived at San Francisco to investigate conditions in California affecting their countrymen.

The raising of the question of citizenship by the Japanese would prove embarrassing to President Wilson, according to opinion here. The president could not yield to the Japanese demand when it was made because the question of naturalization is solely in the hands of congress. That the sentiment in the senate is overwhelmingly against the granting of citizenship to Japanese already has been clearly indicated, and it is believed that in the house the opposition to any such proposal would be even stronger.

Knowing this to be the case, it is considered extremely unlikely that the president would even ask congress to revise the naturalization laws so as to admit Japanese to citizenship. On the other hand, to refuse even to ask congress to make such an amendment to the naturalization laws undoubtedly would incur the resentment of the Japanese.

According to the best informed opinion here, the Japanese will suffer a rude awakening if they venture to raise the question of citizenship. Such a demand, it is predicted, would arouse tremendous opposition throughout the country.

NOMINATION CONFIRMED

Washington, May 21.—At the executive session of the senate a grist of confirmations was turned out, including that of John Purroy Mitchell to be collector of the port of New York, Gaylord M. Salzgeber of Ohio to be commissioner of pensions, and George W. Guethrie of Pennsylvania to be ambassador to Japan. The appointment of Lee Thurman of Columbus as solicitor for the department of commerce also was confirmed.

HENRY M. FLAGLER

Standard Oil Magnate Who Died In Florida After Long Illness.

FLAGLER DIES IN SOUTH

West Palm Beach, Fla., May 21.—Henry M. Flagler, Standard Oil magnate and builder of the Florida & East Coast railroad, died at his winter home, "Whitehall," here, after a lingering illness.

TEDDY AND HIS ARMY PROCEED TO SEAT OF WAR

TO TESTIFY IN LIBEL SUIT

Prominent Men Will Accompany Colonel Roosevelt to Marquette.

New York, May 21.—A small army of witnesses, among them many prominent men, will accompany Theodore Roosevelt to Marquette, Mich., Saturday, where the colonel will press his libel suit against George A. Newell, editor of the Ishpeming Iron Ore. The suit, which was instituted last October, came as the result of a published statement in the Iron Ore that Mr. Roosevelt "curses, lies and gets drunk frequently, and all of his friends know this."

Among Mr. Roosevelt's friends who will go to Marquette to disprove this statement are Robert Bacon, ex-secretary of state; William Loeb, Jr., private secretary to Mr. Roosevelt, when he was president; Gifford Pinchot, O. K. Davis, secretary of the Progressive national committee; Dr. Alexander Lambert, Roosevelt's family physician; Lawrence Abbott of the Outlook; John Callan O'Loughlin and Gilson Gardner, two Washington newspaper correspondents. Some secret service men and stenographers will also be in the party.

DAYTON WANTS CHARTER

Dayton, O., May 21.—At a special election here a charter committee of 15, headed by John H. Patterson, defeated a committee nominated by the regular Democratic organization. The new committee will write the proposed new charter for the city.

MANUFACTURERS ASK PRESIDENTIAL FAVOR

URGE WILSON TO VETO ACT

Labor Exemption Clause Arouses the Manufacturers.

Detroit, May 21.—The session of the convention of the National Manufacturers' association was taken up with discussion of labor organizations and the labor situation in general. The discussion culminated in the sending to President Wilson of resolutions protesting against the sundry civil appropriation bill and urging the chief executive to veto it because of the provision against using its funds for the prosecution of labor organizations under the Sherman act, in case such action is instituted.

G. O. P. SCOUTS ARE PLANNING TO DISARRANGE SEVERAL ITEMS

SEEK CHANGES IN TARIFF BILL

Republican Senators Will Offer Many Amendments.

SAY NO PLOT TO DELAY ACTION

Number of Items in the Metal Schedule Reduced by Senator Stone's Subcommittee—Senator Kenyon Proposes Amendment Putting Aluminum on the Free List—Redfield's Statement Brought Up in Debate.

Washington, May 21.—That Republican senators plan to insist upon amendments to nearly every item in the Underwood tariff bill when it comes before the senate for general discussion became evident when Senator Pennington, former chairman of the finance committee, declared that every member of the minority would have amendments to propose.

Senator Pennington told the senate he knew of no concerted effort to be made to delay the passage of the bill, but said he was assured that the minority would offer many amendments to the schedules offered by the Democrats. Senator Snodgrass also announced that the introduction of amendments would begin as soon as the bill came from committee, and that many recalls would be demanded. If this plan is pursued systematically the journey of the bill through the senate is certain to be prolonged.

Although it is declared to have no special significance, the hurried departure of 30 infantrymen from Fort Slocum for San Francisco, thence to Honolulu, made quite a stir. STRIKERS MAKE DEMONSTRATION AT FUNERAL IN PATERSON, N. J.

At the funeral of Antonio Vischio, who was shot to death in a strike riot at Paterson, N. J., it is estimated that there were 12,000 striking silk weavers in a demonstration funeral parade, which was about two miles long and took about five hours to make a given point. The strikers paraded from the Vischio home to the church, then through the city's principal streets, also passing through the heart of the factory district and continuing the march for three miles to Totowa, N. J. Vischio was not a striker, and was killed by a stray bullet while sitting on his door step.

CONTROVERSY BITTER

CHARGES OF HERESY TO BE INVESTIGATED

Presbyterians Dispose of the Case of Union Seminary.

Atlanta, Ga., May 21.—The bitter controversy which for the past two days has been rife within the ranks of the Northern Presbyterian assembly regarding the Union Theological seminary of New York was brought to a sudden close with the adoption of a motion by Dr. Mark A. Matthews that a committee of seven be appointed to investigate the charges of heresy against the seminary and report at next year's meeting. Dr. Matthews' proposal was accepted almost unanimously by a rising vote.

This action was taken in the interest of harmony, after an acrimonious debate in which the temper of the assembly was evidently against Union seminary and its alleged teachings.

The feature of the United Presbyterian assembly was the adoption of a resolution introduced by Professor John F. Wilson, who occupies the chair of church history in Pittsburgh Theological seminary, calling on the president of the United States to forbid teachers in government schools to wear religious garb of any kind whatever.

GRAND JURORS FAIL TO INDICT GEO. B. COX

Cincinnati, O., May 21.—The grand jury reported to Common Pleas Judge Caldwell that it had voted not to bring an indictment against George B. Cox on the charge of perjury. In February the grand jury took up this charge but by a divided vote failed to report on it. Prosecutor Pogue said several days ago that if the grand jury should report no indictment it would end the matter so far as he is concerned.

STEEL MAGNATE SAYS BIG POOL EXISTED

SCHWAB CROSS-QUIZZED

Admits Pools Were the Usual Thing in the Old Days.

New York, May 21.—Charles M. Schwab, now president of the Bethlehem Steel company and first president of the United States Steel corporation, continued on the stand in the hearing of the government's suit to dissolve the corporation. Mr. Schwab was cross-examined by Judge Dickinson, counsel for the government. The testimony only covered that period before the steel corporation was formed in 1901, and Mr. Schwab was frank in admitting that pools were the usual thing in those days among the big steel manufacturers.

KILPATRICK ACT SEEMS VERY CLEAR SAYS ATTY. HOGAN

NO EARLY TAX CHANGE

Hogan Holds Kilpatrick Act Is Subject to Referendum.

Columbus, O., May 21.—Throughout Ohio the present budget commission, made up of the county auditor, prosecuting attorney and mayor of the largest municipality in the county, will fix the tax levies this June for the year, and the levies will be governed by the interior maximum of the Smith 1 per cent law, the amount of taxes levied in 1910 plus 9 per cent. This will result from the opinion rendered by Attorney General Hogan that the Kilpatrick law is subject to referendum. The attorney general holds it not exempt, as it does not levy a tax but only provides the method of levying taxes.

Former Warden Jones of Ohio Prison After Federal Position.

Washington, May 21.—T. H. B. Jones of Ironton, O., former warden of the Ohio penitentiary, entered as a candidate for the appointment as warden of the government prison at Leavenworth. He filed a formidable array of endorsements. R. W. McLaughry has just resigned as warden of the Leavenworth penitentiary. The position pays $4,000.

TRAIN BURIED IN MUD

CARS HURLED DOWN MOUNTAIN SIDE

Six Persons Lose Lives When Landslide Engulfs Train.

Hinton, W. Va., May 21.—Six persons were killed and a number injured when a mixed train on the Sewell branch of the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad was swept down a steep mountain side by a landslide. The train, composed of an engine, three freight cars and a caboose, the latter carrying passengers, had stopped between Sewell and Landsburg to clear away debris deposited by a cloud-burst. While this work was in progress another slide occurred and the train was thrown from the tracks down 300 feet of the mountain side.

Among the dead are James Walker of Hinton, a traveling salesman, and Mrs. Amick of Landsburg. A girl is known to have been killed. Three other passengers, all men, known to have been aboard the caboose, have not been seen since the accident and are believed to be dead under the wreckage.

News of the accident was brought here by J. Muckles of Charleston, W. Va., who had left the train when it stopped on account of the first landslide. Muckles walked to Sewell. He declared the train was swallowed up completely.

JEALOUSY RESULTS DISASTROUSLY FOR TWO

KILLS ANOTHER'S HUSBAND

Jealous Woman Shoots Man in Presence of His Wife.

Manchester, O., May 21.—Mrs. Louise Franklin, 30, who is separated from her husband, shot and killed George Garrett, 40, in his home, three miles south of Manchester. Garrett's wife was a witness to the murder. The bullet entered the man's mouth and he died without a word. Jealousy is supposed to have been the cause of the tragedy. Mrs. Franklin was arrested and placed in the Vanceburg jail.

TERRIFIC GAS EXPLOSION CAUSES FIRE IN HOOKER POOL ROOM LATE IN NIGHT

Proprietor Seriously Burned
And Entire Block Endangered

Explosion Takes Place in Basement
When Victim of Burns Investigates
Stopping of Big Gas Engine.— Heavy Pool Tables Hurlled Into the Air and Stampede Occurs.—
Foundation for a Serious Conflagration.

Excitement ran high Tuesday night about 10:30 when a terrific explosion of gas occurred in the basement under Hooker's pool room and restaurant, and William Hooker, the proprietor of the place, was seriously burned and narrowly escaped with his life.

The explosion occurred about 10:20 and was the result of a heavy accumulation of gas which had escaped from the huge gas engine, which furnished power for generating electricity for lighting the building.

The engine had stopped a few moments previous to the explosion, and Hooker went below to start the engine, and struck a match to find his way through the passageway in the basement. When he struck the match the explosion followed instantly, setting fire to his clothing and to the building.

With cries of agony he dragged himself up the stairway, and staggered out with his clothing aflame, and wildly fighting to extinguish it.

A number of persons were at the lunch counter when the explosion took place, and there was a mad stampede for the door. The concussion was so heavy that the entire block was shaken, and the pool tables in the rear of the room were hurled several feet in the air and came down with a crash.

After the first excitement was over, and it was found the place was on fire, the alarm was given and the department summoned to the scene after some delay.

A line of hose was laid to the rear of the building and another in front, and after considerable effort during which it was necessary to cut through the floor in order to reach the room containing the fire, the blaze was extinguished. The principal damage being to the generator in the basement. Damage done to the building was not extensive, considerable damage being done to the pool tables and the billiard table, which were hurled into the air and landed in the street.

The fire, which started in the rear of the place, burned and greatly reduced the pressure. The shut-off nozzle was used in driving the gas fumes and smoke before the men in the basement.

The great need of smoke hoods was again manifested and would have enabled the firemen to have reached the seat of the trouble much earlier than they did.

The Colonial theater, next door to the pool room and restaurant, was filled with thick smoke. Fortunately the last reel had been run just a few moments before the explosion.

A peculiar incident in connection with the injuries sustained by Hooker is that he had a premonition of something serious to happen, and had given up a trip to Columbus earlier in the day.

CONCERT PROGRAM ABLY GIVEN

The second of Miss Light's annual May recitals with her piano pupils, which began auspiciously last Friday night, was given Tuesday evening by the most advanced pupils of the class at the First Baptist church.

Three vocal pupils of Miss Edith Gardner assisted and it was really a beautiful concert program, evoking unusual applause from the audience.

Misses Lillian and Kathleen Davis opened the program with an artistic rendition of Handel's "Overture to Oberon." Misses Ruth Reid and Edith Worthington, two young pianists of very unusual talent, played another duet, "Golden Bells" with much brilliancy.

The solo work of the class demonstrated both Miss Light's ability as instructress and the conscientious work of the pupils. Each pupil played with intelligence and clean, clear-cut execution, all but one without notes.

The compositions rendered were exacting in their demands and gave the pupils generous opportunity. Miss Ruth Thomas, of New Holland, displayed decided musicianship in her rendition of "Spinning Song," S. Smith, and Miss Helen Gooley, also of New Holland, played Godard's Second Mazurka very well.

Miss Mary Weaver, possesses a touch of rare delicacy and her two numbers, "Romance," E. Morison, and "Butterfly," C. Lavallee, were beautiful.

Both in brilliant solo work and as the accompanist for the singers, Miss Lillian Davis displayed talent promising much for the future.

The two boys of the class played like seasoned musicians and received generous applause. Warren, Scott, played "Polka-Belladonna," J. Brown, with perfect ease and assurance. Ross, rendition of Mendelssohn's Prelude to E. Minor and Chopin's Scherzo, J. Debussy, were masterly.

Miss Gardner's vocal pupils also did excellent work, two of them, Miss Jeanette Weaver and Miss Pauline Elm appearing for the first time and both singing pretty ballads. Ada Woodward has a naturally sweet and sympathetic soprano and sang beautifully. Each pupil sang with clear diction and true tone quality.

The last of the series of recitals will be given by the youngest piano pupils Saturday afternoon.

MOVEMENT OF TROOPS TO WEST IS EXPLAINED

Washington, May 20.—Secretary Garrison pointed out today that the movement of troops from Ft. Slocum, N. Y., and other eastern posts to the Pacific coast was being made under an order issued March 15 by former Secretary Stimson, which directed immediate recruiting of 2000 men to bring the Hawaii garrison up to its full strength.

Army officers say it is difficult to secure recruits on the Pacific coast and that it had to enlist the men in the eastern and middle states.

The order for 2000 recruits has not nearly been filled and War department officials say the movement will go on for some time.

MAY LEAD WORLD IN NUMBER OF AUTOS

Columbus, O., May 20.—Will Ohio lead all other states and countries in the ownership of automobiles this year? That is a question which is being asked at the office of the state registrar of automobiles, where the applications for 1933 licenses are still pouring in by the hundreds.

Monday No. 66,999 was issued, which is over 3,000 more than was ever issued in a single year before. Last week the daily average number of applications received by the department was 350 and Monday almost 400 were received.

Most of the applicants are for tags for new machines and it is noticeable that hundreds of the new auto owners live on rural routes scattered into every portion of the state.

IN SOCIETY

An exceedingly pretty pre-nuptial affair was given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Cary Howland and Miss Helen Haines, of Bloomingburg, in honor of Miss Dorothy McCoy, of Bloomingburg, a June bride, whose engagement to Mr. Marion Sollars, was announced some time ago.

Mrs. Howland's home on E. Market street, was made very attractive with yellow and white decorations, the table having a big yellow basket filled with white sweet peas in the center and yellow candles under yellow shades throwing a soft golden glow over the pretty scene.

An elaborate four-course luncheon was served.

With the utmost informality the guests, upon their arrival, had each been presented with a nickel and the merry party tramped to the store and invested in gifts for the coming bride. The selection of these gifts was great fun and the girls presented them with original verses of good wishes, at the close of the luncheon. Miss McCoy was looking very pretty in white bordered tulle, flowered in lavender.

The guests were confined to her intimate friends, Misses Alma Scott, Helen and Martha McCoy, Mary Weaver, Ercel Stitt, Jessie Leavelle, Lucile Jefferson, Verne Elliott, of Bloomingburg, and Miss Mazie Kessler of this city.

Mrs. Robert Howat delightfully entertained the women of the Monday Bridge club at a handsome luncheon Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Barnett spent Tuesday in Columbus.

Mrs. Abe Bergman, son Oscar and daughter, Louise, of Chillicothe, are visiting Mrs. Bergman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Laman Steinhart.

Mrs. Richards and daughter, Miss Margaret, Mrs. G. A. Pavey and Mrs. Albert Mills are shopping visitors from Solon for the day.

Miss Stella West, of Bloomingburg, has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Hobbs Evers this week.

Miss Fannie Campbell and guest, Miss Chase, of Washington, D. C., were the guests of Miss Campbell's brother, Mr. Will Campbell, Tuesday enroute to Hillsboro. They expect to return tomorrow to visit a couple of days at Mr. Campbell's home.

Rev. A. W. West is in Detroit, Mich., to attend the meeting of the Northern Baptist convention.

Washington friends of Miss Esther Boggs will regret to learn that she is quite ill at her home in Bloomingburg.

Mrs. George B. Sterner and two children, of Akron, are visiting at the home of Rev. Forrest. Mrs. Sterner is a sister of Mrs. Forrest.

Miss Clara Young of Chillicothe, is spending several days the guest of Mrs. Madison Pavey.

LARGE CROWD WELCOMES CINCINNATI BOOSTERS

GOOD ADDRESSES AND MUSIC MARK OCCASION

Visitors Pleased With Magnitude of Reception and Warm Welcome Extended by Local Business Men. Crowd Waited One Hour for Belated Train—Friendly Link Between Washington and the Queen City Strengthened by Visit Today.

Eight hundred to a thousand persons including most of the business and professional men of the city, greeted the boosters from the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce upon their arrival in this city just one hour belated time, 12:10 p. m., Wednesday, and the business men of the city mingled with the visitors until the train pulled out shortly after one o'clock.

The crowd commenced to assemble on the court house lawn and at the Pennsylvania depot before 11 o'clock, and when it was found that the train would be one hour late they waited patiently until it pulled in. The special consisted of seven Pullman coaches, two baggage cars and required two engines to pull it.

After a general greeting at the train, the visitors were escorted to the court house lawn, Webster's band playing a rousing air.

Upon the arrival at the steps of the court house, Mayor Harvey W. Smith opened the program with a short but splendidly worded and well delivered address on behalf of the city. He was followed by Hon. C. A. Reed, who delivered one of his usually good addresses, in which he extended a most cordial welcome to the visitors and assured them that the "keys" to the city were theirs while they remained here. His remarks were particularly well chosen and in perfect accord with the occasion.

Wm. T. Johnson, president of the Wm. T. Johnson Co., a big jobbing concern, and who is chairman of the Trade Expansion committee, followed Mr. Reid on behalf of the visitors thanking the previous speakers for their royal welcome and assuring his hearers that it was a genuine pleasure to meet with the citizens of Washington.

In closing his address, Mr. Johnson introduced George Puchta, president of the Queen City Supply company, and also assistant treasurer of the United States at Cincinnati. Mr. Puchta's address was not only full of humor but was along the line of a boost for the Queen City. He also was heartily applauded.

This ended the speaking, and after two or three selections by Weber's band, and a general mingling together to get acquainted, the visitors marched back to the train.

A liberal supply of fresh butter-milk, furnished by the Fayette County Creamery, was on tap for benefit of the visitors, and was greatly enjoyed. "Dry towns" can deliver the goods," said one man as he finished the third glass.

Four newspaper representatives were with the crowd, and also a couple of photographers. Walter Draper, president of the Chamber of Commerce, was busy and could not come.

Taken as a whole the visit of the Cincinnatians was very pleasant, not alone to the citizens of Washington who greeted them, but to the visitors themselves and they expressed their pleasure in words that could not be mistaken.

While here, various advertising matter was scattered broadcast, while "Kinky Joe" of the Enquirer had his hands full taking care of the youngsters, giving them postcards, novelties and the like.

The train was more than one hour late when it left this city for Columbus.

BONHAM HOMESTEAD DAMAGED BY FIRE

The large home at Scott Bonham at Sedalia, was badly damaged by fire Saturday afternoon late, when flames started in the attic but were extinguished before they had seriously damaged the house and contents.

Mr. Scott Bonham and sister, Mrs. Kirkpatrick, who reside in Cincinnati, had visited the residence a short time before, and removed some family heirlooms from an old trunk in the attic, and it was in the trunk that the fire started about one hour later. It is supposed that a lighted match must have fallen into the trunk.

The bucket brigade of Sedalia responded to the alarm and soon had the blaze under control. Prof. Owen Jones occupied the house and his household furniture was all removed. Mrs. Jones was in this city at the time. Her father and mother, who are helpless, were carried in safety from the premises. Mr. Bonham did not know of the fire until some time afterwards, when word was sent to him.

SONS OF VETERANS NIGHT

Prisoners of War

Two friends take different paths where the Civil war is declared. For old time's sake the Confederate aids the escape of the Federal. Later the way opens for the grateful man to reciprocate and he does not fail.

The Gauntlets of Washington

An old man beating drum is ordered out of a tavern by a jeering host, but he tells a story of the day that he and another young man saved George Washington from the Hessians, and the wealthy village squire proves to be that man.

A Revolutionary Romance

Jordan Alden, a young American officer, is in love with Molly Brown, the daughter of a well-to-do New England farmer. Jordan is on a visit to the home of his loved one, when he receives a message from his general instructing him to don the uniform of a British soldier, make his way through the British lines and report on the strength of their troops. He makes the change in uniform and starts on his dangerous mission, leaving Molly broken hearted. Before going Molly warns him to be most careful in returning as British soldiers are constantly camping on their grounds. Molly agrees to warn Jordan by a light signal, in case it is dangerous for him to return to the house.

Colonial

A Will And A Way

Mary undertakes to get an old man's signature despite the son's opposition. She is ejected from the house once, but gets back again by a ruse, meanwhile the son has set fire to the house and Mary, after obtaining the signature, is barely rescued from the frenzied youth by a fireman. It is a tremendously exciting film. Edison.

Tim Grogan's Foundling

He defends the child against kidnapers and blackmailers. Delivers her safely to her father and marries the widow after all. It reads well but not half so well as it is told in the picture.

A Hero's Reward

Hen Boggs, chief of the Mudville Fire department, is not the most prepossessing of gentlemen because of his wooden leg. He gains the good graces of Iva through his stories of alleged bravery and thus incurs the enmity of Willie DeWitt a young villager, who is anxious to win Iva's hand.

One More Builder is Gone

Another one of the giants of the world of finance and the world of railway construction work laid aside the armor of this world when Henry M. Flagler at the advanced age of eighty three years answered the final summons at his winter home in West Palm Beach yesterday.

Henry M. Flagler was one of the men who in his day and age made America famous around the world. In the height of his remarkable career he accomplished much, perhaps working under plans and following ideals which the nation has now outgrown, but nevertheless necessary in his time.

Great projects in railway development were undertaken and successfully consummated by Flagler which would have been impossible of accomplishment under the ideals of business prevailing at the present time.

Flagler made of that trackless wilderness of the East coast of Florida, at once a paradise and a store house for man, and reaped enormous profits from his success.

Not content with the accomplishments of the past Flagler rushed on into other "impossible" sections and bridged an arm of the ocean itself in a railroad across "The Keys." The suggestion of the undertaking made the world gasp, but Flagler put the work through and lived to see his project a practical success.

When men like Henry M. Flagler, who have accomplished so much in the development of the country pass off the stage of action for all time, people wonder if their places can be filled.

The demand of the times and the conditions of the people and the country demand different men with different ideals, different projects but with the same determination to do.

That is the way of the world. Each in his own sphere of action in his own way but the success of the present and of the future cannot dim the glory of the giants of the past.

Drawing The Line

The Supreme court of Ohio handed down a decision yesterday holding that a light, heat and power company was without authority to charge a flat rate of one dollar a month where the city ordinance fixed the maximum price at which the products of the company were to be sold to the people.

The case came to the court from the city of Springfield, and all of the six judges of the Supreme court agreed in the conclusion reached.

The particular case of course, is confined to a comparatively small territory, but the principle underlying the decision is far reaching in its effect and will undoubtedly result in revolutionizing the method under which many public service corporations of that class have been operating in Ohio.

Under the present code of laws the public service corporations of the state are held to a very strict accountability under their franchises, a course which has not been, unfortunately, adhered to in every instance.

It is likely too that the decision, while far reaching in its effect, is only the forerunner of a number of decisions along the same line which will do much to define the line beyond which, in the matter of charges, public service corporations dare not go and to push those which have crossed beyond the borderland back "on the reservation".

Minimum Wage Idea Is Unsound

By Professor JAMES LAURENCE LAUGHLIN, Political Economist, University of Chicago

THE PROPOSAL OF A MINIMUM WAGE FOR WOMEN IS UNSOUND AND DIRECTLY OPPOSED TO THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE WOMEN THEMSELVES.

In all this agitation, which is serving to give much political notoriety, there is no connection made whatever between labor wages and producing power. The chief idea of its sponsors is that wages should be based on what the recipient needs in order to live properly. But the facts in daily life show that girls who are not actually worth the minimum wage—say eight dollars—WOULD NOT THEN BE EMPLOYED.

The true and immediate remedy of low wages for girls is the CREATION OF INSTITUTIONS FOR THEIR INDUSTRIAL TRAINING, thus increasing their earning power and consequently their wages. Too many women who are thrown upon their own resources HAVE NO TRAINING whatever to make them valuable as workers. Here is the basic cause of their low earning power.

A remedy of existing conditions of hostility between laborers and employers can be found in the CO-OPERATION OF BOTH, to the end that wages may be raised WITHOUT THE INCREASE OF COMMODITY PRICES. This means a complete reversal of the principle of monopoly of labor, which the labor unions have adopted. Labor must revert to the basis of UNRESTRICTED COMPETITION.

Poetry For Today

THE LITTLE CITY FELLER.

The little city feller was as pale as he could be—
My mother had him sent out for a week, so he could see
The really, truly country, an' get lots of milk an' eggs,
An' put some fat, ma said, on his pore little arms an' legs;
An' then she told me he ain't got no good home like I got,
An' never knew his father an' his mother like as not.

At first he sort of dumped around an' wouldn't play a thing,
An' wouldn't talk or answer me, but set there in the swing,
Until I brought my rabbits out, an' took him down to see
Old Bess, an' her new, spotted calf that daddy give to me.
I took him to the crick, an' say? what do you think of him?
A-goin' on eleven, an' ain't never learned to swim!

An' then we drove the cows home and we helped corral the sheep,
An' he was so done up an' tired, he et, and fell asleep
Right at the table, an' my pa he carried him to bed,
Because he wasn't bigger than a minute, daddy said;
Said we must help him get red cheeks an' muscle, like I got,
An' cut up Ned—I'd have to show him how, as like as not.

But now I guess there ain't no devilment that he can't find,
He keeps me goin' some, but I ain't very far behind.
May says the two of us is all a mortal can endure,
An' just another week of it would drive her crazy, sure.
New company, an' going home today as like as not,
Or I bet Ned gets a Ginnie with a tickle like I got!

INTERESTING BITS OF NEWS

(By John E. M. Kerr.)

Boy Scouts of America are preparing to camp. It is likely there will be more camping parties throughout the country this summer than ever before. In fact, there will be more Boy Scouts in the woods this summer than ever before. It is estimated that over 200,000 Boy Scouts of America will spend one week in camp if not longer. They will practice scouting after the manner of the pioneers and incidentally they will learn many things.

Official designations are given to about 12 new postoffices daily under the direction of the fourth assistant postmaster general. These names which usually originate with settlers who have petitioned for the postoffice are granted after they are referred to the railway mail service, which sees that no duplications occur in the same state. In giving names to places in accordance to the wishes of inhabitants a number of unusual examples have occurred. Thus there is an A. B. C. D. E. F. G. H. I. J. K. L. M. N. O. P. Q. R. S. T. U. V. W. X. Y. Z. in West Virginia. Zeal in South Dakota, and there are such other designations as Zim, Zin, Zoh and Hoh. There is a Cool in California, a Hot House in Georgia and a Pigeon Roost in Kentucky. The president and Congress are the only ones that can overrule a name after it is selected.

Senator Simmons called for today the first meeting of the full membership of the finance committee to consider questions relating to the tariff. One matter to be determined will be the list of questions on the tariff to be sent to manufacturers throughout the country. Senators Simmons, Williams and Stone will submit a list for the committee's approval.

Redfield's Warning.

During debate on the matter of making public briefs filed by manufacturers with the subcommittee, Senator Townsend of Michigan engaged in a colloquy with Senator Simmons relative to the alleged threat of manufacturers to reduce wages and the counter-intention of the administration through the bureau of investigations, to investigate concerns which might reduce wages following tariff reductions.

"Is the senator aware," asked Senator Townsend, "of any conditions existing which will make possible the proposed action on the part of the government as indicated by the secretary of commerce?"

Mr. Simmons could refer only to hearings before the congressional committees in which manufacturers said they would have to curtail expenses if tariff duties were cut.

Senator Stone's subcommittee was engaged in consideration of the metal schedule. Though Senator Stone denied reports that the committee had made general reductions from the Underwood rates, some items have been reduced. One of these is said to be structural steel, on which is 12 percent in the bill as it passed the house. Senator Kenyon of Iowa has introduced an amendment to put aluminum on the free list. This is in keeping with the proposal to put all products of monopolies on the free list.

A second prize of $1,000 was offered, and by reason of there being but two contestants, Parla won that.

AGED VETERAN A WOMAN.

Soldiers' Home Inmate Posed Fifty Years as a Man.

Quincy, Ill.—The sex of Albert D. J. Cashier, civil war veteran and an inmate of the Soldiers and Sailors' home here, has just been revealed by Colonel J. O. Anderson, superintendent of the home, to be feminine.

The woman, whose real name will probably never be known, served three years in the Union army during the civil war. She was mustered out of the service in 1865 and a few years later was placed on the government pension roll. She entered the soldiers' home two years ago, and at that time her sex was known only to Colonel Anderson, who promised not to reveal her secret. A short time ago she was adjudged insane, and as a result she was committed to the state hospital.

Revelation of her sex was made two years ago in Livingston county, Ill., where she was employed by ex-Senator I. M. Lish as chauffeur. It is said by the ex-senator that one day his machine would not run and the chauffeur crawled under the car. While she was tampering with the mechanism the engine started suddenly, and the wheels of the car passed over her, breaking her right leg. When the chauffeur was taken to a hospital it was discovered that she was a woman.

No Competition Exists Between Firms That Sell Armor Plate

SECRETARY DANIELS' CHARGE

Declares Bids of All Concerns Furnishing Armor Plate Approximately the Same For Several Years—Only Solution of the Problem, He Believes, Is Government-Owned Steel Mills.

Washington, May 21.—Characterizing the sale of armor plate to the United States government by American armor makers as a "holding," Secretary of War Daniels announced today he now believes a government-owned steel mill is the best solution of the problem.

The secretary said that while he was not prepared to recommend the creation of a government armor plant, he believed the question of armor plate production and distribution should be brought into the government's hands. He said he believed the government should have a steel mill of its own to make armor plate.

Daniels said that he had been told by the armor makers that they were not competing for the armor plate business, but that they were all selling at the same price.

SCIENTISTS NEARING LIFE'S BORDERLAND

Tests Tend to Show a State This Side of Death.

Baltimore.—Recent investigations in the laboratories of the Johns Hopkins Medical school seem to indicate a state intermediate between life and death since life in many organisms may be suspended by freezing in liquid air and by other processes and then may be resuscitated.

Bacteria, the lowest plant organisms, have enormous powers of resisting death. Bacteria of various diseases are seen in the laboratory frozen in liquid air at a temperature of 300 degrees F.

There are instances of the lives of frogs, rats, snails and fish being suspended by this freezing process, yet on being "thawed out" after several weeks they revive.

These animals are perfectly normal when placed in a refrigerating jar filled with liquid air at a certain temperature. After a short time the animals appear lifeless. A month later they are removed and on being massaged show signs of life, often reviving completely.

Recently successful efforts were made in the medical school to revive the apparently dead heart of an animal. As explained by Dr. Alexis Carrel, who recently lectured before the student body here, in about five cases out of ten the heart of a chicken took on renewed energy several hours after death. Immediately after death the heart was frozen and preserved. A few hours after it was resuscitated by massage.

EXTEND TIME ON UNDERWOOD BILL

Many Petitions From Business Men Urge Definite Action.

ASK FOR SPECIFIC DATES.

Secretary Redfield Confers With Senator Simmons of Finance Committee. Wool Rates Likely to Become Effective Nov. 1—Other Sections of Measure to Become Law Jan. 1, 1914.

Washington.—The fixing of specific dates when certain features of the Underwood tariff bill shall become operative is being urged with such persistency as to presage success. It is desired to have the schedule comprising wool and manufactured articles thereof go into effect Nov. 1, leaving other sections of the measure to become a law Jan. 1, 1914.

The general impression prevails that President Wilson favors this extension of time. The chief reason for such belief arises from the fact that Secretary Redfield of the commerce department recently held a long conference with Senator Simmons, chairman of the finance committee, on the proposition. Although Mr. Redfield is largely interested in manufacturing enterprises, it is not regarded as possible that he would advance a change of such significance and importance without the consent and approval of his chief.

The argument used by Secretary Redfield was that those engaged in many lines of industry demand a fixed date when the tariff bill should go into operation. They desire to adjust their business affairs in advance and be pre-

SECRETARY BRYAN ADDRESSING CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE

A remarkable photograph taken during Secretary Bryan's recent visit to California to attempt to influence the legislature to conform to President Wilson's views in relation to the proposed alien land law. On the left of Secretary Bryan are Governor Johnson, Lieutenant Governor Wallace and Speaker Young. The insert shows Secretary Bryan receiving flowers from Eveline E. Meger.

coming in from those conducting woolen business in all parts of the country praying that Schedule K be made effective Nov. 1. They urge an immediate announcement by congress of such intention. They explain that this is absolutely essential in order that contracts may be made on that basis and raw materials purchased with that understanding.

Of almost equal importance was the suggestion brought to Senator Simmons by Secretary Redfield that the levy on incomes be laid only on those accruing after July 1, 1913, and not beginning with Jan. 1 of this year. This would defer the gathering of an income tax for six months. The plan is advanced that an attempt to tax incomes accruing after Jan. 1, 1913, might be regarded as retroactive legislation and be pronounced unconstitutional by the supreme court.

Winifred T. Denison, assistant attorney general, and James F. Curtis, assistant secretary of the treasury, in charge of customs, are the authors of an amendment of far-reaching importance. It had been previously laid before Chairman Underwood of the ways and means committee. It has the endorsement of the attorney general and the secretary of the treasury. There is a possibility that it may be approved by the finance committee and presented in the senate before debate begins.

Under the proposed amendment the secretary of the treasury would be given authority to proclaim the dutiable value of any merchandise as finally decided by the appraisers in case of no appeal to be the dutiable value. But whenever in the judgment of the secretary it is practicable to make a general schedule of dutiable values he may from time to time proclaim such values, publish them to take effect in no case less than fifteen days after publication, and "in the absence of such an announcement proclamation shall take effect at the close of such fifteenth day, and such proclamation shall continue in effect until revoked or modified by the secretary upon sixty days' notice."

Such proclaimed values by the secretary would be used in lieu of foreign market values, thereby steadying the customs case as derived from an ad valorem system.

The great calamity in Omaha was quickly overshadowed by the terribly disastrous floods in Ohio. Great suffering and sickness from colds and exposure resulted which Foley's Honey and Tar Compound helped to alleviate. L. Poole, 2217 California St., Omaha, writes: "My daughter had a severe cough and cold but Foley's Honey and Tar Compound knocked it out in no time. My wife would not keep house without it. We have used it for years, always with good results." Blackmer and Tanquary.

ANOTHER BIG EVENT AMONG ODD FELLOWS

Another memorable gathering of Odd Fellows occurred in this city Tuesday night, when Imperial Degree Staff in the presence of nearly 500 members, conferred the first degree upon a class of 19 candidates, the work being up to the usual high standard of the staff.

Visitors were present from all of the surrounding towns and cities, including some from Columbus, Springfield, Dayton and the former Grand Master of Massachusetts, the latter stating that he had witnessed the conferring of degrees from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and had seen the best staffs in the world confer the first degree, but had never before witnessed such splendid work as that of Imperial Degree Staff of this city. Others showed equal warmth in their complimentary remarks.

A very pleasurable event in connection with the meeting was the big chicken-pie supper served in the banquet hall in the Odd Fellows temple, by the Rebekahs. Nearly 500 persons enjoyed the big supper. The ladies were complimented on all sides by those who enjoyed the repast.

Before the work in the large Memorial hall was finished, the fire bell sounded for the Hooker fire, but every man kept his place until the close of the meeting.

ACCUSED SWITCHMAN CONFESSES MURDER

Special to Herald.

Columbus, O., May 21st.—According to the local police, Leslie Humphries, switchman, accused of murdering Samuel Kelly, of Hinton, West Va., on the night of May 7th and robbing the body of $47, has confessed his guilt.

The confession followed the finding of the murdered man's watch in the vault at Humphries' home.

ANOTHER WOMAN WANTS DIVORCE

Ethel Bowsher, through Attorney E. L. Bush, Wednesday filed action in the Common Pleas court against Claude Bowsher, asking for a divorce and alimony.

Gross neglect of duty is the charge made against the defendant. The plaintiff alleges that they were married in this city the 7th of last September, and that her husband took her to live with his parents and her mother-in-law and husband mistreated her.

She further claims that on Feb. 7th, 1912, the defendant took her to the home of her mother and left her. She asks for divorce, alimony and restoration to her maiden name of Ethel White.

WAITER MARRIES HEIRESS.

Check and Blessing From Traction Magnate, Father of Bride.

Boston.—George A. Lamassee, "the handsomest waiter in Boston," has captured an heiress, Miss Nancy Redding, daughter of Michael J. Redding, a Baltimore traction magnate and president of the Democratic club of Oriole City. The couple were married. It has just become known, at the Boston Cathedral of the Holy Cross on May 1.

Lamassee hails from Providence. He was captain of waiters at the Folies Bergere restaurant, New York city. Then he came to Boston and got a job a month ago in the Copley Plaza hotel in the Back Bay. He waited on Miss Redding at the latter hotel, and it was a case of love at first sight.

Though Mr. Redding, it is said, often told his daughters he would rather they be wedded to workingmen than idle society youths, he gave a gasp. 'tis reported, when told of Miss Nancy's quick match. He barely got here in time to attend the wedding, but he gave the pair a check and a blessing. Jack Redding, the bride's brother, was best man.

Lamassee will manage a restaurant in an amusement park partly owned by his father-in-law at Ohi City, Pa.

AROUND THE BASES

Bert Shotton is the best run-getter of the Browns.

Pitcher James of the Boston Braves is a spitball artist.

The St. Louis Cardinals are playing a much improved game.

Evers is certainly making good use of that high-priced catching material.

President Locke of the Pirates claims that baseball clubs are losing money.

Manager Jake Stahl has announced that he will be a bench manager after this season.

Philadelphia ball players say Keating has a sharper break to his spit ball than Ed Walsh.

Umpire Westervelt, late of the American league staff, is officiating in the American association.

For the first time since he has been running a ball club in St. Joseph, Jack Holland is claiming a pennant.

Dick Hoblitzel, the Red's first sack er, is in fine form and out to duplicate his great work of last season.

Chance says Walter Johnson is the fastest pitcher and Eddie Plank the best left handed he ever looked at.

Jake Daubert, of the Brooklyn, has been doing some fancy stunts at the first bag for the Dodgers this season.

Manager Birmingham of the Naps picks Walter Johnson to win forty games for the Washingtons this season.

Manager Frank Chance of New York Highlanders.

Nearly every ball player, on the verge of a great series is extremely nervous, irritable and ready to take a poke at his very best friends but the champion of them all is Frank Chance, former manager of the Cubs and, now leader of the New York American league team. As every ball tosser knows, Chance is a chronic groucher and one of the most superstitious men that ever appeared on the diamond.

Harry Davis.

A photographer was lucky enough to get the Cubs' leader to smile when posing for a picture with Captain Davis of the Athletics before the world's series started. It was the first time the peerless leader had smiled in weeks.

Shortly after the train bearing the players left Chicago for Philadelphia to start the series several men began to sing. It was O. K. until they came to the song "Casey Jones." Chance thinks that song is the jinx. He immediately jumped up from his seat and announced that the first man who sang that song again would be fined $500 and suspended.

Leaning to that old superstition that history repeats itself, Chance opened the series with Orville Overall in the box. In two other world's championship contests Orville won the first game. But after the Athletics pounded Overall all over the diamond Chance was in extra bad humor.

On opening his mail after the game Chance received a letter from a Chicago reader which was dated 13 and in which the fan wished him luck as it was his thirteenth season in fast company. Matters were made worse when he discovered that his berth was No. 13 and that the check, for $10,000 which he sent to the national commission as a guarantee that the rules would not be violated was mailed on the 13th. Chance was in such bad humor that many of the players shunned him as much as possible. At the start of the second game in Philadelphia the Cubs leader was harboring a terrible grouch.

In the second inning of the second game Chance lost his temper completely when Ricker called a strike on him and he said something to the umpire that was not audible to the people in the grand stand and smote the ground savagely with his bat.

Later he showed his irritation again when catcher Kling called for three balls to catch Collins stealing when Baker was at the bat. Baker then singled through Chance, and the latter fell on his face trying to stop the drive. As he came up with his mouth full of dirt he looked daggers at Kling and openly accused the latter of sacrificing the team's chances of winning in order to protect or better his own personal record behind the bat. After looking at Kling for a little while he yelled: "You call waste balls on Baker for fear Collins will get another stolen base on you. You do that again and you'll sit on the bench."

Discredits Comedy Stunts. The comedy stunts of Schafer and Albrook do not appeal to Manager Birmingham of the Naps. Says Joe: "I hope Ban Johnson put the screws on that pair. If people want to see slap stick action they can go to a vaudeville show. That pair of clowns try to make the opposing players look like a lot of dummies."

Good Control Essential. George Mullin, the veteran twirler of the Tigers, says a pitcher must have good control to stick in the majors. "Speed and fancy curves will not allow a pitcher to remain in the big show if he is unable to locate the mark," said Mullin.

TOOK DUBUC YEARS TO LEARN

Frenchman Spent Long Time in Perfecting Slow Ball Delivery—Worked It Out Himself.

It took Jean Dubuc of the Detroit Tigers three years to gain control of his slow ball.

Jean made this statement while talking with a party of friends regarding his famous delivery, and the pitcher said that there are times even now when he finds it a difficult task to control the delivery.

"I cannot tell how many days I worked on the delivery," said Jean. "I know that there were countless times at first, when I felt like throwing up the sponge and forgetting that there was such a thing as a slow ball delivery."

It has been said that Clark Griffith taught one the delivery. That isn't true, Jean worked it out himself, and nothing after much I observed him, aiming to get the same motion and the slow ball that I did with the fast one. I did not experiment with any batters until several months after I had started work on the delivery, but when I did start I succeeded in fooling the bats of them.

I got it while near the grand stands when with Montreal in 1911, but last year with Detroit I had it going at the bats. Many persons think I use it on numerous times during the game. I don't. If I use it five or six times I am resorting to the delivery quite often.

The use of the ball depends on the hitters and the clubs. There are some batters in the American league who murder a slow ball, while others can not hit it. Naturally, then, I depend upon the delivery when facing men I know are weak before it.

My slow ball has never been hit for an extra base but once, and that time it was slambled by Neal Ball of the Boston Red Sox. He caught it for a double, but I can say, with pardonable pride, that there were times after that when Ball was helpless before the delivery.

Tris Speaker hit it the hardest. We were playing the Red Sox in Detroit one day when I tried to control Speaker. He caught the ball squarely and drove it on a line to Cobb. That was a close shave and I thought when the ball left the bat that it was ticketed for a home run.

The slow ball is the hardest delivery of any to master. It's easy enough to throw curves or the spit ball, but in acquiring the proper delivery for a slow ball a pitcher has to have a world of patience.

Many New Catchers

Six major league clubs have new catchers in the role of first string maskmen this season. In the National league Wingo replaces Drennon at St. Louis, Tom Clark has Larry McLean at Cincinnati, Hariden is in King's Boston shock and Kelly and Simon are doing most of Gibson's Pittsburgh work. Over in the American league Schuch is the Sox regular and Arnes has replaced place with Stovall. Then with little notice at Brooklyn, Henry and Amersbach at Washington, ready at Boston and O'Neill at Cleveland the day of the young catcher has appeared.

Sure of Flag

Manager Griffith of the Washington baseball team, who made such a great showing last year, is quoted as saying: "Barring accidents, we will surely win the American league flag this year. We finished second last year and certainly ought to improve this season and if we better our position we are bound to win the pennant."

Owens Bush, the little shortstop of the Detroit Tigers, is claimed to be the best lead-off man in the game today.

SING SING CALLED A TORTURE HOUSE

Medieval Barbarities Tame by Comparison.

MEN CRIPPLED FOR LIFE.

Governor's Investigator Asserts That Cells Drip With Moisture and Are Infested With Vermin—Morals the Worst Feature—Craft and Waste Alleged—Colonel Scott Flayed.

Albany.—"Stories of torture of prisoners in the middle ages sound like descriptions of luxuries in comparison to the tales that have been told me of the lives that some of the prisoners in Sing Sing live."

This indictment of New York state's oldest penal institution is embodied in the report made by George W. Blake of New York, a special commissioner appointed by Governor Sulzer to investigate prison affairs.

The worst feature—that dealing with the morals of the convicts—Mr. Blake says cannot be discussed in a public document, but should be called to the immediate attention of those competent to deal with the situation.

The investigator describes conditions as "frightful." The prison cells, he says, are dark, small, damp, filthy and infested with vermin. In them men contract rheumatism and go out crippled for life. Into none of the cells on the lower tiers has a ray of sunshine entered for eighty years.

The report opens with a bitter attack on Warden Kennedy and on Colonel Joseph F. Scott, who was removed as superintendent of state prisons by Governor Sulzer after he had refused to appoint Charles F. Ratigan warden of

MILLIONAIRE SETS TYPE IN JAIL

This picture shows the millionaire socialist editor, Edward F. Smith, setting type for the prison paper, rather than pay a fine imposed upon him by the Warrensville, Ohio, authorities. His young wife, formerly his stenographer, visits him regularly.

In the country. President Taft summoned Colonel Scott to Washington to preside over the international conference on prison reform held there two years ago. Mr. Blake in his report as-sails Colonel Scott bitterly and says flatly that he has done nothing to earn his reputation.

Mr. Blake asserts that because of influence exerted by men well known in various walks of life money has been wrong from persons seeking clemency for prisoners, but in some cases the favors sought were "not delivered."

The commissary department of the prison, according to Mr. Blake, "is run along incompetently if not dishonestly. There is criminal carelessness if not downright grafting. Signs that this is the case stick out as plentifully as quills on the back of a frightened porcupine."

John S. Kennedy, warden of Sing Sing, is charged by Mr. Blake with having violated the law. "He has permitted the creation and continuance of unbusinesslike methods," says the report, "and has caused the state to lose thousands of dollars in a way that points directly to graft. He has made no attempt to protect the inmates from disease and vice nor any effort to produce better conditions in this prison."

Mr. Blake says he was told stories, imply corroborated, of such frightful character as to appeal to the most unfeeling person. The cells on the ground floor, he says, drip with moisture, so that the inmates in many cases have become victims of chronic rheumatism.

Many pages of the report are devoted to a criticism of the industrial department of the prison. Mr. Blake says that there has been a constant decrease in the profits, which have dropped from $76,749 in the first six months of 1910 to $30,052 in the first six months of 1912.

In the course of his investigation of the commissary department of the prison Mr. Blake says that, according to the records, 460 pounds of beef went to Warden Kennedy's table during the month of March. Commenting generally on the conduct of this department of the prison, Mr. Blake says he found enormous waste, while the prisoners, as a rule, were underfed.

WILL WED ONLY THE SOUND.

Montclair Pastor Will Insist on a Certificate of Good Health.

Montclair, N. J.—The Rev. Henry E.
Jackson, pastor of the Christian Union Congregational church here, has announced he will perform no more marriages without a certificate signed by the physician of the bride to be that the intended bridegroom is in perfect health.

At the coming annual meeting of Unity church the members will vote on the question as to whether the pastor, Rev. Edgar S. Wells, shall perform the marriage ceremony without having first obtained from each of the contracting parties a medical certificate that they are physically sound.

The eugenics movement in Montclair is attracting considerable attention, interest in the subject having been aroused by recent addresses of Dr. Henry Smith Williams, Professor H. E.
Jordan of the University of Virginia,
Dean Sumner of Chicago and Clifford Roe, also of Chicago.

Tacoma Birds Night Singers.

Tacoma, Wash.—Mrs. Clara Gillespie of 4139 South Yakima avenue reports that Tacoma has birds that sing in the night. "We have an orchard that is frequently visited by these night singing birds," said Mrs. Gillespie.
"They warble and trill very prettily, although I have never been able to see one."

POETRY WORTH READING

The Crisis.

I wonder, when will it come,
That moment of utmost test,
When the naked soul is confessed,
Will it come when the drum and the bugle wade
Summon the nations of earth to ride
Like Vikings of old on a turbulent tide
On the war wave's red spumed crest?

I wonder, when will it come,
That soul searching moment, to me—
And where, on the land or the sea?
Will the heart be dumb and the hand
be numb
Or the spirit stout when it takes the list
For the fateful course of the battle try?
From the first ordained to be?

I wonder, when will it come,
That sudden unsealing of sight—
In the day or the terrible night?
Whatever the time, wherever the place Forfeid, ye fates, that there be disgrace
When I and my self stand face to face
Each asking "Who is this wight?"

Then, courage, whenever it come,
Mid the hum of the lethal hail
On the field where the stricken fall
In the foul arena's stifling dust,
Stained with the red wine of battle
lust—
Let it come when it will, as come it must Courage to answer the call!

Then, wisdom, whenever it come,
The moment of critical choice,
When the calm, imperative voice Bids behold the divergent ways of life,
With unknown possibilities rife,
And choose then wisdom be mine to plumb
The mystery, and rejoice.

I wonder, when will it come,
That glorious moment, to me—
And what shall the issue be?
Each passing moment the future unlocks
Whose faith is fast as the continent rocks,
He dreads not fate and its rudest
shocks—
From defeat wrests victory!

PRISONER'S LEG BY EXPRESS.

Detective Takes Unusual Precautions to Prevent Charge's Escape.

Chicago.—When Sergeant George Wilson of the Chicago detective bureau started from Portland, Ore., with George Hampton, alias T. E. York, wanted here on a charge of forgery, in his custody he took what he believed to be adequate measures to prevent his prisoner's escape.

Wilson removed Hampton's wooden leg before boarding the train and shipped it to Chicago by express.

Five Legged Colt.

Julietta, Ida.—Harve Southwick, a farmer of the Cream Ridge district, has a Percheron colt with five legs. The fifth leg is joined to the left front foot at the ankle, then branching into a perfect foot.
